ANN NORTON SCULPTURE GARDENS

Sculpture Gardens’ black-tie dinner honors Iris Apfel

About 100 people came out for the Ann Norton Sculpture Gardens’ An Evening with Iris Apfel Dec. 14 at Café L’Europe. After a reception with passed hors d’oeuvres and cocktails, the black-tie dinner featured Scottish smoked salmon with caviar, cappelletti traveresona pasta filled with spinach and artichoke sauce, Holland Dover sole meunière or roasted rack of mustard-crusted Colorado lamb. The floral table centerpieces included Apfel Barbie dolls. Guests, who also were celebrating the fashion icon’s 97th birthday, wore glasses and feather boas in Apfel’s style. Before the birthday cake, designer Tommy Hilfiger and his wife, Dee Ocleppo, presented Apfel with a limited-edition Judith Leiber unicorn purse.

Christina Aylward was the chairwoman of the event; the co-chairwomen were Frances Fisher and Sally Sater. “We are here this evening to celebrate the one-of-a-kind Iris Apfel,” said Fisher, board chairperson for the Sculpture Gardens.

The Ann Norton Sculpture Gardens Inc., a nonprofit foundation established in 1977 by resident sculptor Ann Weaver Norton, announced Rebecca Darnell as the new executive director. This Fall, the Gardens announced the reinstallation of the entire permanent collection as an extension of the recently completed renovation of the galleries and studios. The Parks Department recently granted approval for the Gardens to further expand its initiatives and programs.
