It was bumper-to-bumper at the Ann Norton Sculpture Gardens for The Second Annual Sculpture in Motion – The Art of Pre- and Post-War Automobiles. Ann Norton’s own monumental sculptures and gardens served as the perfect backdrop for beautiful classic cars. Presented by Sentient Jet, the day-long event was chaired by Palm Beach residents Frances and Jeffrey Fisher, Audrey and Martin Gruss, and Lisa Kenna and Sam Lehrman.

Sculpture in Motion welcomed visitors of all ages to experience the history and design of almost two dozen one-of-a-kind classic pre- and post-war automobiles, some dating from the 1920s. John Barnes, founder of Cavallino Magazine and The Cavallino Classic, was the event’s curator and Honorary Chair.

“Thank you all for being here this evening to celebrate the Second Annual Sculpture in Motion,” said Cynthia Kanai, CEO for the Ann Norton Sculpture Gardens. “Ann Norton would have been thrilled that we are here to honor the history and the design of these classic one-of-a-kind ‘rolling sculptures.’ This event enables us to invite our community and visitors of all ages into these gardens, many of whom have never visited before.”

The Ann Norton Sculpture Gardens, Inc. is a non-profit foundation established in 1977 by resident sculptor Ann Weaver Norton. An urban sanctuary of almost 2 acres, the compound comprises Norton’s historic house with exhibition galleries, her studio, monumental sculptures and tropical gardens of rare palms and cycads.
