

3 Things to Do This Week in Palm Beach County: October 3-10

Our editors highlight 3 noteworthy events for the upcoming week

By Site Staff - October 1, 2019

Beginning October 3: Sister Act

Lake Worth Playhouse will stage the divine musical comedy Sister Act October 3-20. Inspired by the 1992 Whoopi Goldberg film of the same name, Sister Act the musical features music by Oscar- and Tony-winning composer Alan Menken. The story follows disco star Deloris Van Cartier who, after witnessing a murder, is placed in a wacky witness-protection scenario hiding out as a nun in a convent. For more information, click here.

October 5: Community Open House at Ann Norton Sculpture Gardens

Ann Norton Sculpture Gardens in West Palm Beach will host a free community open house on Saturday, October 5, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. During this time, visitors are invited to explore the 2-acre garden, listen to live music, and even create their own sculptures. They're also welcome to peruse "Expanding Horizons: Nontraditional Approaches to Photography," a new special exhibition on view in the historic house. Click here for more information.

October 5-6: Baby and Beyond Expo

The inaugural South Florida Baby and Beyond Expo will take place at the Palm Beach County Convention Center in West Palm Beach Saturday, October 5 (10 a.m. to 5 p.m.) and Sunday, October 6 (10 a.m. to 4 p.m.). Attendees will be able to discover new products, clothing, and accessories from dozens of baby and children's vendors. In addition, child and health care experts will participate in on-site educational activities. Tickets begin at $8. For more information, click here.

Facebook Comments
