

Local Happenings

To promote your event in Local Happenings, please send an e-mail to newsdesk@PalmsWestMonthly.com. Photos are welcome. Deadline for submission is the 12th of every month.

Ann Norton Sculpture Gardens to host free open house

The Ann Norton Sculpture Gardens kicks off its upcoming season with a free open house Saturday, Oct. 5 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

For one day only, the public can step through the gates of this 2-acre garden free of charge to experience both garden and exhibition tours, refreshments and music.

Visitors can also view the exhibit "Expanding Horizons: Nontraditional Approaches to Photography," which include works by Kimiki Yoshida, Bernard Faucon and Steven Wilkes.

The Ann Norton Sculpture Gardens is at 253 Barcelona Rd. in West Palm Beach. For more information, go online to ansg.org.

Screen on the Green to show 'Hotel Transylvania 3'

Head out to the Great Lawn in downtown West Palm Beach Friday, Oct. 11 when the City of West Palm Beach presents Screen on the Green from 7 to 10 p.m.

"Hotel Transylvania 3" (PG) will be the featured film for this event under the stars. The Great Lawn is at 100 Clematis St. in downtown West Palm Beach.

Tropical Fruit Tree and Plant Sale to be held at fairgrounds

The fall Tropical Fruit Tree &

Edible Plant Sale, hosted by The Palm Beach Chapter of the Rare Fruit Council International, is set for Saturday, Oct. 12 at the South Florida Fairgrounds from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Vendors from all over the state will offer a wide variety of fruit trees for sale, including avocado, banana, citrus, macadamia, fig, guava, mango, peach, papaya and many more.

There will also be information on planting and growing fruit trees, along with knowledgeable volunteers and vendors ready to answer questions.

Attendees should enter the fairgrounds through Gate 8 on Fairgrounds Road.

Both admission and parking for the event are free. The fairgrounds is at 9067 Southern Blvd. in West Palm Beach.

It'll be a dog day afternoon at Calypso Bay Waterpark

Calypso Bay Waterpark in Royal Palm Beach will open its doors to dogs of all sizes during its "Waggin' at the Waterpark" event Saturday, Oct. 12.

Bring your dogs out to Calypso Bay Waterpark and let them splash around, get a good workout and meet new friends.

Dogs will be permitted in the park for 50-minute sessions, determined by size. Dogs weighing 45 pounds and up will be permitted in the park from 10 a.m. to 10:50 a.m., and again from noon to 12:50 p.m.

Dogs weighing less than 45 pounds will be permitted in the park from 11 to 11:50 a.m. Cost is $10 per dog, humans admitted free.

Registration opens at 9 a.m. and will re-open 30 minutes prior to each session provided there's still room. All owners must sign a waiver when registering their dogs, and dogs must have proof of current rabies, DHLP and Bordetella vaccinations on site in order to enter the waterpark.

For all other rules and to download a registration form, go online to pbcsplash.com.

The Green Market opens Saturday, Oct. 19 and will run every Saturday through April from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Bracelets now on sale for Wellington's Fall Festival

Bracelets are now on sale for Wellington's annual Fall Festival, to be held Saturday, Oct. 19 from 3 to 10 p.m. at Village Park, 11700 Pierson Rd.

Haunted hallways will open at 5 p.m. Other attractions include hay rides, trick-or-treating, face painting, a petting zoo, pony rides, bounce houses and laser tag. Attendees can also enjoy live performances on the sound stage. Costume contests for various age groups will be held at 4 and 7 p.m.

Unlimited all-access bracelets are required for activities, and may be purchased at the Wellington Community Center, 12150 Forest Hill Blvd., and Village Park. Bracelets purchased by Oct. 18 cost $7 for children, $5 for adults. On the day of the event, bracelets will cost $10 for children, $5 for adults. Children ages 2 and under are free.

Free shuttle service will be available from the Palm Tran bus stop near Macy's at the Mall at Wellington Green.

Ann Norton Sculpture Gardens to host free open house

• October 2, 2019

0 25

The Ann Norton Sculpture Gardens kicks off its upcoming season with a free open house Saturday, Oct. 5 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

For one day only, the public can step through the gates of this 2-acre garden free of charge to experience both garden and exhibition tours, refreshments and music.

Visitors can also view the exhibit "Expanding Horizons: Nontraditional Approaches to Photography," which include works by Kimiki Yoshida, Bernard Faucon and Steven Wilkes.

The Ann Norton Sculpture Gardens is at 253 Barcelona Rd. in West Palm Beach. For more information, go online to ansg.org.